

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pulp and Paper Safety Association Presents Roundtable

ATLANTA, Ga., USA, Mar. 2 - The Pulp and Paper Safety Association (PPSA) will hold its first ever roundtable discussion on Thurs., March 26, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The discussion, "Pedestrian and Mobile Equipment Safety", will be held at Georgia-Pacific Headquarters located at 133 Peachtree Street Northeast in Atlanta, GA.

"The PPSA Roundtable Discussion is an excellent opportunity for people in the forest products industry to engage in direct communication about new ways to improve their pedestrian and mobile equipment safety programs," said PPSA Executive Director, Eric Fletty. "It is also a great chance for participants to exchange best practices, take part in comprehensive discussions, and connect with colleagues."

PPSA will facilitate the discussion and provide attendees with handouts, as well as share the key concepts and proceedings notes afterward. Attendance is free and will enable all who are present to share expertise, learn from others in the industry, and be a part of an open discussion on key issues, challenges and barriers.

Register by March 19 to attend.

Attendees are also welcome to partake in a pre-discussion dinner on Wed., March 25 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

For additional information please contact Eric Fletty at efletty@ppsa.org or 770-209-7535.
